Champagne

Bottle

JCB No 21, Brut Burgundy By Jean-Claude Boisset 65
A great alternative to Champagne produced from the same technique known as Methode Traditionelle. The nose shows flowers and exotic fruits aromas, notably pineapple. The crispy foam gives a really nice freshness to the wine and the chardonnay grapes give fruit and elegance. Well balanced and rich, but also delicate and elegant. A lovely apertif.

Laurent Perrier NV Champagne 90
This is beautifully balanced with fine streams of flowing bubbles – the hallmark of the finest Champagne – leading to delicate citrus and subtle floral notes on the nose. Courtesy of one of the last great family-run houses in Champagne.

Dom Perignon 285
Predominantly made from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, this Champagne typically features notes of toast and coffee. You may also get subtle aromas of vanilla and cream, along with faint hints of spices. As it ages, you can expect matured toasted notes and aromas of almonds.
